

LBRDC 50th Anniversary Thanksgiving Night

In commemoration of its five decades of dedicated service and institutional excellence, the LBP Resources and Development Corporation (LBRDC) held its 50th Anniversary Thanksgiving Night on May 30, 2025, from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM, at the LANDBANK Plaza Hall, Malate, Manila. With the theme “50 Years of Building and Realizing Dreams,” the event gathered 183 attendees, including LBRDC officers and employees, esteemed stakeholders, and prominent guests from the government and private sectors. The celebration served as a momentous occasion to honor the corporation’s rich history, recognize its accomplishments, and reaffirm its commitment to delivering responsive and innovative support services nationwide.

The program formally opened with registration and a red-carpet photo opportunity, followed by the arrival of the Guest of Honor and Speaker. Director Paolo Miguel V. Teodoro delivered welcome remarks, setting the tone for the evening by acknowledging the organization’s evolution and its significant role in supporting the operations of its clients and partners over the last 50 years. This was followed by an audio-visual presentation highlighting LBRDC’s milestones, strategic growth, and service contributions across the country.

The President’s Remarks were delivered by PCEO Col Ricardo C. Juliano, CPA, PA (MNSA) (Res.), who paid tribute to the workforce, institutional partners, and leadership whose collective efforts have brought the company to its current stature. He emphasized the importance of professionalism, adaptability, and excellence as LBRDC continues to align its operations with evolving industry standards and client needs.

A key segment of the evening was the Presentation of Awards, which recognized the long-serving officers and employees of LBRDC for their loyalty and contribution to operational efficiency. Stakeholders were likewise honored for their collaborative role in advancing the company’s mission.

The formal introduction of the Guest of Honor and Speaker was made by Director Abner O. Malabanan, leading to the keynote address by Chairperson Atty. Marius P. Corpus of the Governance Commission for GOCCs (GCG). In his message, Chairperson Corpus underscored the value of governance, transparency, and accountability in sustaining the growth and relevance of government-owned and -controlled corporations. A special virtual message from LANDBANK President and CEO Ms. Lynette V. Ortiz was also aired, congratulating LBRDC for its decades of reliable service and partnership with LANDBANK.

The evening proceeded with a wine toasting ceremony led by LBRDC Chairman Lt. Gen. Antonio Ramon A. Lim PAF (Ret.), symbolizing unity, gratitude, and optimism for continued progress. A fellowship dinner followed, marking the termination of the formal program. The event transitioned smoothly into the informal segment, providing a relaxed setting for interaction and camaraderie among attendees.

The successful execution of the Thanksgiving Night was the result of a collaborative effort across all departments of LBRDC, spearheaded by the Administrative and General Services Department in close coordination with the Office of the President and CEO. The presence of several distinguished guests added prestige to the event, including VP Don V. Sumadchat, VP Romulo E. Sapitula, VP Alexander S. Lazaro, Michael P. Arañas, Eusebio A. Cortez, Hon. Analiza M. Vasco, Roy C. Oscillada, Jake Francis Dimayuga, Atty. Arlene Hernandez, Ms. Rhea S. Austria, Mr. Ricardo Leighton A. Tamayo, Dir. Feliciano L. Macalino, Dir. Abner O. Malabanan, Dir. Paolo Miguel V. Teodoro, Dir. Jose Enrique Marfori Jr., Dir. Teresa Denis B. Dugay-Gregorio, Atty. Reynauld Villafuerte, Mr. Gil Sorita, and Col. Engr. Jay Estabillo.

LBRDC’s 50th Anniversary Thanksgiving Night was not only a celebration of its enduring legacy but also a reaffirmation of its vision to be a leading provider of support services committed to excellence, integrity, and national development.
