Your Guide to PEZA Accreditation

To locate your business at LBRDC-SEZ, obtaining PEZA accreditation is necessary.

WHAT IS PEZA ACCREDITATION?

The Philippine Economic Zone Authority (PEZA) provides a range of tax incentives to registered business enterprises (RBEs). These incentives vary depending on the location of the business and the industry it operates in.

- PEZA accreditation is a certification granted by the Philippine Economic Zone Authority, a government agency that promotes investments in the Philippines. This accreditation is given to businesses operating within specialized economic zones, or ecozones, in the country. These zones offer various incentives, particularly for export-oriented activities.
- This accreditation provides benefits like tax holidays, duty-free importation, and access to advanced infrastructure, promoting investment, job creation, and economic growth.
- The accreditation process involves a thorough evaluation to ensure businesses meet the criteria and development goals set by the agency.
- Within the LBRDC Special Economic Zone, PEZA Management stands ready to guide each locator through the PEZA Accreditation process.
